

Halswell School is transitioning to a new logo. Argyle has stopped production of the old logo but there is still stock available, until these items are sold these sizes won't be available with the new logo. Argyle has separated the old and new uniform items on their website and have discounted the older stock. As items run out the new logo will come online. Please note there is no end period for when students need to stop wearing the old logo. We expect it will be sometime before the new uniform logo is fully phased in.
